Fox the Photographer, Friday.

Been to the fair? Don't miss it.

The Fox Studio is open every Friday.

The merchants are receiving great loads of Fall and Winter goods.

The scent of the moth-ball proves the arrival of last-winter's underwear.

There's not enough water in some portions of Garrard to make a good toddy.

Stock water has been selling at twenty cents a barrel in some parts of the county.

Squire Johnson Puffed Off.

Last week, much to the regret of his many friends, Squire Sam Johnson decided to take no part in the primary election, and so told his friends, who had buckled on their armor to fight to the last ditch for him. Notwithstanding this, a great many voted for him anyhow. There is no more popular or upright man in Garrard county than is "Squire Sam," as his many friends call him.

Notice to Teachers.

Most of the Garrard county teachers were paid last Saturday for the first month, those who have not yet received their money can get it by calling at the law office of Lewis L. Walker on Saturday, Oct. 15th.

Loses Two Children.

The family of Mr. E. P. Jones, who resides near the water works Lake, have deep sympathy in their recent bereavements. Only about two weeks ago their 15-months old child died, and last week another, six years of age, passed away. Mr. Jones, who is one of our best citizens, moved here a short time since, but has made a host of friends who extend their sympathy.

Bro. McLellan Left Friday.

Having just returned from his vacation when Bro. Tindler called upon him to come to Lancaster, and having several other engagements which called him from his work in Richmond, it was necessary for Eld. McLellan to leave Saturday morning, and preach his last sermon Friday night. The house was crowded, and, after the sermon he was besieged by the people who told him of their appreciation of his sermons. He certainly gained a warm place in the hearts of the Lancaster people who, regardless of church affiliation, trust that he will be with us again at an early date.

W. C. T. U.

Mrs. Robert Stone and Mrs. Rebecca West gave an interesting account of the State Convention which met at Mt. Sterling. The same State officers were re-elected. Our own county woman, Mrs. Francis Beauchamp, presided with her usual grace and dignity.

The ladies W. C. T. U. sent two beautiful banners to St. Louis to be on exhibition W. C. T. U. day. One was white satin with gold letters and ivy. The white, an emblem of purity, gold, solidity and the ivy undying devotion. Mrs. Farra presented the L. T. L. a beautiful scarlet satin banner with gold trimmings in the following words: "Children of the L. T. L., I present to you this banner in the name of the mothers of this land. May you each be a standard bearer and help them fight the foe."

Arch Lawson Dead.

News of the death of Arch Lawson, son of Sheriff Wm. Lawson, was received from El Dorado, Ark., Sunday. The young man left here several months ago seeking employment in the west, and had just become well located in El Dorado, when stricken by typhoid fever, which terminated fatally Sunday morning. The remains were brought here and interred in the Lancaster Cemetery. Arch was in his twentieth year, and a very popular young man. He was married, a little over a year ago, to Miss Sallie Ross, who, with a child, survives him. He was a member of the Paint Lick Presbyterian church. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. M. Chumbley, at the Lancaster Cemetery. Mrs. Lawson, his mother, left Saturday for his bedside, was notified of the death when reaching St. Louis. The remains were accompanied to Lancaster by Mr. R. E. Henry, of El Dorado. Arch died at the residence of Mrs. E. H. Smith, his cousin.

R. L. Jennings will have his fall opening of cloaks and furs, Friday and Saturday, the 14th and 15th.

The drouth has caused the Harrodsburg waterworks plant to shut off the water, what little left being saved for fire protection.

If the drouth continues much longer, Lancaster people will have to resort to that never-failing way to bring rain—have a stock fair. This was never known to fail.

Preaching at Fork.

Rev. Martin, of Shepherdsburg, will preach at the Fork church Saturday morning at 11 o'clock Sunday evening at 7:30. Also Sunday morning and evening at the same hours.

Lot Holders, Take Notice.

A very important meeting of the holders of lots on Hamilton Avenue will be held at J. C. Hemphill's office Saturday afternoon, at three o'clock. It is very important that every lot holder should be present.

To Officers of Primary.

If you expect pay for serving at Saturday's election, please call at my office and receive check. If you do not desire compensation please let me know at once. G. B. Swinebrow, Sec'y.

Meeting Hour Changed.

During the winter months the night service at the Presbyterian church will be changed to 3:30 in the afternoon. As many of the congregation reside in the country, this will enable them to attend both Sunday services. In extremely cold weather it will be of great convenience to town people as well, and it is believed the plan will prove quite satisfactory. Services will be held next Sunday morning as usual, and at 3:30 p. m.

Millinery Openings.

We cannot see why the milliners do not band together and abolish the silly custom of having opening days. It requires many days of the very hardest work, the stocks are pulled and hauled over by the crowd and not one in fifty ladies buy or even select their head-gear on these days. There is no disputing the fact that a woman is going to look at every hat in town before she decides what she wants, and this can not be done with any satisfaction on opening days. A large crowd was in town Saturday to see the displays at the local millinery houses, and many compliments were passed upon the lovely selections. Each of the four establishments had been prettily decorated and the hats tastefully arranged, and we have never seen a nicer lot of millinery than is now on the shelves and in the show cases of the Lancaster dealers. Time was when it was necessary to go to the city to secure anything unusually fine in millinery, but not so now. You can get what you want right here in Lancaster, and that too at very reasonable prices. The Lancaster dealers, Logan Dry Goods Co., Miss Dickerson, Miss Sallie Tillet and Mrs. Jno. F. Lear, are right up to the minute on styles, and if you trade with them you are sure to get the very latest patterns and styles.

Dix river has about shut up shop.

The drouth is the most severe ever known in this section.

The last $1.50 Excursion will be run to Cincinnati Sunday. Quite a number are going from here.

Betting on Saturday's election was quite heavy, and quite a number of fellows will have to postpone buying their winter flannel.

Unless consumers are more economical, the town will be forced to place water meters at residences. This will cost more money, so it's a good idea to be careful.

Bales of Richmond, bought in Boyle 92 head of cattle at $5 12 1/2 head at 5c and 18 head at 5c. The Advocate says it was about the best lot ever sent from there and represented the sum of $15,000.

Pretty Banners.

The Lancaster W. C. T. U. will be represented at the World's Fair by two handsomely painted banners, which will be placed in the exhibit when the National Union meets in St. Louis. One represents the Union and the other the Loyal Temperance League. The goods are of the finest quality, the lettering and trimmings being in gold. The banners are very pretty, indeed, and reflect great credit upon those who worked so faithfully in making them.

The Primary.

The democratic primary election, held Saturday, was about as warm a number as ever passed down any pike, in fact the interest was so intense that many looked for trouble Saturday. However, everything passed off as quietly as could be wished, there were no quarrels or anything to cause hard feelings. The vote was very large. The winners, Mr. Joe E. Robinson, Capt. Doty and Mr. Jas. Bourne are being warmly congratulated upon their victories. The race for nomination for county attorney was considered the warmest fight, and Mr. Robinson should feel proud of having defeated so able, worthy and model young attorney as is Mr. Davidson. Mr. Robinson is a lawyer of ability and, if elected, the people can rest assured that the interests of the county will be looked after in an able and absolutely impartial manner. He tells us he will play no favorites, if the people give him the office, and will see that all offenders, rich or poor, black or white, will be made to serve out sentences imposed upon them. Mr. Doty, the nominee for county clerk is too well known in the county for us to go into detail, and its a safe prediction that he will, as in the past, conduct the office in the best possible manner. Mr. Bourne is well fitted for the place he seeks, and will make the county a good official. The majorities were Robinson 363, Doty 444, Bourne 181.

Death of Geo. White.

The death of George White, which occurred at Richmond Friday night, cast a gloom over the many friends of the clever gentleman and his estimable wife in this locality. Although a Madison county man, he was beloved by many of our people who had known him all his life. Kind-hearted, liberal to a fault, honest and noble are characteristics which endeared George White to all who knew him. He married Miss Jennie Faulkner, one of the noblest and sweetest of Garrard's daughters, and to her is extended deepest sympathy of a host of friends. The funeral services and interment took place at Richmond Sunday.

Up To The Minute.

One of the prettiest stores in Central Kentucky is that of J. C. Thompson, the jeweler. He has recently had all the counters removed, replacing them with the latest patterns in show cases which run to the floor. A hard wood floor of a pretty pattern has been put down, the desk removed and many other changes made which gives ample room to wait upon a large crowd of customers. He is disposing of his tablets, stationery and the like, and will handle a larger stock of jewelry, watches, diamonds, clocks, etc. His facilities for repairing are complete, while his engraving outfit cannot be surpassed in Central Kentucky. If you want to see a strictly up-to-date store, call at Thompson's, on Danville street.

Meeting Closed.

The meeting at the Christian church came to a close Sunday night, Brother Tindler having preached on the two remaining nights. It is the opinion of all that the church has been greatly benefitted by the meeting, the interest awakened bringing the people to a better realization of their church duties and causing resolutions to live nearer to Christ and devote more time to spiritual things. The sermons also brought much comfort to Christians walking in paths of righteousness and they received great encouragement to renew their efforts to bring others to Christ. There were thirty additions to the church, all of whom were baptized during the meeting. The meeting was largely attended by members of other denominations who enjoyed the services and were greatly benefited thereby. Bro. Tindler, the pastor, has been doing splendid work in this church ever since he came here, quietly laying the foundation for this meeting which has proved so successful. He is one of the hardest working and most conscientious ministers we have ever known, a public spirited citizen, one ever ready to build up instead of tear down. Such men are the bone and sinew of a prosperous, honorable community.
